

Fact sheet 2 – Participant responsibilities

Participants are to:

- participate in CGEN or MOST 2019 on the basis of full commitment. It is expected that all scheduled auditions, rehearsals and performances will be attended and that students will follow their school's Code of Behaviour during all of these commitments or risk exclusion from the program
- be cooperative, self-disciplined and willing to follow directions from all coordinating teachers, supervisors and all members of the CGEN or MOST teams, including directors, category managers, tutors, choreographers and stage crew
- demonstrate respect and support for fellow participants, including respect for their personal belongings and all equipment, including venues. Students may be required to pay for any expenses that arise as a result of careless or reckless behaviour
- be punctual for all sessions. All participants should arrive fully prepared for scheduled auditions, rehearsals and performances
- sign-in on arrival for all CGEN or MOST commitments
- remain within the perimeter of the venue (including the immediate grounds) for the duration of the commitment. Under no circumstances will students be permitted to leave the perimeter of the venue (and grounds) at any time without permission from the category manager and without a supervisor, coordinating teacher, principal or parent/guardian
- advise a supervisor if unwell or injured when the symptoms first occur. Parents/guardians or coordinating teachers will be required to assess the situation and take appropriate action
- be responsible for their own belongings. Do not bring valuables to auditions, rehearsals and performances
- bring adequate food and water to auditions, rehearsals and performances
- turn off mobile phones during auditions, rehearsals and performances
- hire, borrow, purchase or make costumes. Costume costs are to be met by students and all effort is made to keep these costs to a minimum
- have read and understood all program terms and conditions available on the CGEN and MOST websites.
